

In the name of Good

پژوهشکده خانواده

Family Research Institute of Shahid Beheshti University presents:

International Congress on "Family and Globalization"

May 13-14, 2011

Family is the primary and most important unit of the society according to Islam and Iranian culture, which has been facing challenges over the several past decades. Globalization has impacted the family situation over the world and there is no doubt that researchers and experts from around the world have been concerned and tried to develop strategies to pass through the crisis and save the position of family while stay intact with other cultures. To respond to this fact, Shahid Beheshti University, has stepped forward and has called for international contribution to brought the year 2012 congress of family pathology in focus of globalization. The main objectives of this movement are to bring together policy makers, professionals and researchers to share their ideas and address variety of issues related to family and globalization. In addition, this congress seeks solutions for international crises that directly impact families in Iran and around the world.

• The legal consequences of globalization for family

- The legal consequences of new styles of marriage and having children
- The impact of national and international statements on the family rights
- The impact of human right on the place of family
- The impact of globalization on the rights and duties of family members
- The impact of globalization on religious right of family
- The changes in family rights in Iran in the lights of globalization

- The impact of globalization on family economics

- The impact of globalization on women occupation and family
- Globalization and economic culture of families
- Globalization and family occupation and quick benefit retailing
- The impact of globalization on the gender-dependent poverty
- The impact of globalization on economical justice
- The impact of globalization on parenting role
- The impact of globalization on resource management and consumption in the family
- Globalization and governmental support from family economy
- Globalization and demographic economy and the issue of birth control

- The impact of globalization on relations of families with other social institutions

- The impact of globalization on relations of family with government
- The impact of globalization on relations of family with educational institutions
- The impact of globalization on relations of family with supportive institutions
- The impact of globalization on relations of family with local and international markets
- The impact of globalization on relations of family with civil organization
- The impact of globalization on relations of family with religious institutions

- The Impact of globalization on policy making in family domain

- The impact of globalization on supportive policies in the family domain (social security programs and subsidies)
- The impact of globalization on educational policies in the family domain
- The impact of globalization on policy makings for country's economy in the family domain (business, production, consumption)

- Globalization and family education

- The place of family in school curriculum in the globalization era
- The role of education & training in the improvement of family
- The impact of training programs on family
- The relationship between school educations and family needs
- The impact of globalization on family training programs
- The impact of family training programs on family consolidation
- The impact of international institutions on family

- The impact of migration on the family in globalization era

- The impact of migration on family structure
- The impact of migration on family values
- The impact of migration on the internal relationships of family

○The impact of migration on external relationships of family

- The impact of globalization on family structure

- The evolutions of family structure over the time and around the world
- The role of international institutes on family structure recommendations
- The role of globalization in the evolution of family structure
- The consequences of globalization for the formation/development of family
- The impact of globalization on generation gap
- The impact of globalization on gender gap
- The impact of globalization on the unification of family

- The impact of globalization on family functions

- The impact of globalization on family deviations
- Multinational families and their challenges
- Pathologies and challenges for immigrant families
- Therapeutic and preventive interventions for families
- The impact of virtual communications in changing marriage rate
- The impact of globalization on the internal relationships of family
- The impact of globalization on different cycles of marriage (marriage and parenting)
- Family consolidation methods in the process of globalization
- The impact of globalization on role alteration in families
- The conflicts between family culture at local and global level

- The impact of globalization on family structure

- The evolutions of family structure over the time and around the world
- The role of international institutes on family structure recommendations
- The role of globalization in the evolution of family structure
- The consequences of globalization for the formation/development of family
- The impact of globalization on generation gap
- The impact of globalization on gender gap
- The impact of globalization on the unification of family

- The impact of globalization on family functions

- The impact of globalization on family deviations
- Multinational families and their challenges
- Pathologies and challenges for immigrant families
- Therapeutic and preventive interventions for families
- The impact of virtual communications in changing marriage rate

- The impact of globalization on the internal relationships of family
 - The impact of globalization on different cycles of marriage (marriage and parenting)
 - Family consolidation methods in the process of globalization
 - The impact of globalization on role alteration in families
 - The conflicts between family culture at local and global level
- The impact of globalization and culture on family
 - The impact of globalization on political culture of family
 - The impact of globalization on changes in public atmosphere
 - The impact of religions on the process of globalization
 - The impact of family culture on the global evolutions of family
 - The impact of family culture on adapting the impacts of globalization
- The impact of global crisis on family
 - The impact of water crisis on family
 - The impact of spirituality crisis on family
 - The impact of food crisis on family
 - The impact of environment crisis on family
 - The impact of war and military occupation crisis on family
- The impact of global media on family
 - The impact of virtual communications and family
 - The impact of transnational media and family
 - The impact of national and local media on family
 - The role of media in the improvement of cultural security of family
 - The place of family in the policies and programs of the media
 - The impact of press on family
 - The impact of specialized medias on family
 - The impact of general media on family

Deadline for abstracts: January 20, 2012

Shahid Beheshti University, Tehran, Iran

Tel: 29902366-22431814

Fax: 29902368

Email: family.global@mail.sbu.ac.ir

Web: <http://familycongress.sbu.ac.ir>

This document was created with Win2PDF available at <http://www.daneprairie.com>.
The unregistered version of Win2PDF is for evaluation or non-commercial use only.